Herefordshire Council is a unitary authority providing a wide range of services to 192,000 people living in the county. People who come here consistently comment on the warm welcome they receive and there's a real appetite and commitment to improving our practice and supporting each other in doing so. Our staff tell us how they value the teams they work in and the knowledge and experience of our team managers and heads of service.

As a large rural authority, we are conscious that access to services can have a huge impact upon health inequalities, and we are determined to work more closely with health partners and community and voluntary groups to ensure a more joined up approach.

Our Herefordshire Council Plan 2024-28 sets out how the council will make its contribution to the ongoing success of Herefordshire. With the overarching vision, 'Delivering the best for Herefordshire in everything we do'. The plan set out how we will enable residents to realise their potential, to be healthy and benefit from communities that help people to feel safe and supported.

Herefordshire Health and Wellbeing Strategy 2023 – 2033 sets out the vision for 'good health and wellbeing for everyone' supported by our four ambitions that describe the type of place we aspire Herefordshire, recognising the wide range of factors that shape our health and wellbeing

Public Health team arrangements:

The Public Health Team is led by the Director of Public Health. We are a small core public health team who work closely with colleagues across the Council and through our external partners to improve the health and wellbeing of Herefordshire residents. The team also incorporates our asset based community development approach (Talk Community), emergency planning, community safety and work with adults with complex needs.

We are an approved training location providing quality training opportunities for Public Health Specialty Registrars, the Foundation Programme and Local Government Graduate trainees. Consultants in Public Health are encouraged and supported to become Educational Supervisors
